

Who can access Research4Life?

Research4Life is designed to enhance the scholarship, teaching, research and policy-making of the many thousands of students, faculty, and scientists, in the developing world who are working in health, agriculture, environment and other life, physical and social sciences.

Institutions in eligible countries areas and territories:

Universities and colleges, research institutes, professional schools, extension centers, government offices, local non-governmental organizations (NGOs), hospitals and national libraries. All staff members and students are entitled to access the information resources.

What are the two lists of countries, areas and territories and how are they determined?

The two lists (Group A and Group B) are based on four factors: GNI (total), GNI per capita (World Bank figures), United Nations Least Developed Countries (LDCs) List inclusion and Human Development Index (HDI).

Group A countries, areas, and territories — free access

- All countries, areas, or territories fulfilling any of the below criteria:
- United Nations Least Developed Country List
- Total Gross National Income (GNI) is at or less than US$ 15 billion where Gross National Income per capita (GNlpc) at or less than US$ 3000
- Total GNI is at or less than US$ 2 billion where GNlpc at or less than US$ 5000
- Total GNI is at or less than US$ 200 billion, where:
 - Human Development Indicator (HDI) is at or less than 0.60, and/or
 - GNlpc is at or less than US$ 1500

Group B countries, areas, and territories — low-cost access

All countries, areas, or territories not already covered in Group A which fulfill any of the below criteria:

- Total GNI is at or less than US$ 1.5 billion
- Total GNI is at or less than US$ 25 billion where GNlpc is at or less than US$10,000
- GNlpc is at or less than US$ 6000 where Healthy Life Expectancy (HALE) is at or less than 55
- Total GNI is at or less than US$ 300 billion, where:
 - HDI is at or less than 0.67 and/or
 - GNlpc is at or less than US$ 6000

Countries, areas, or territories with a total GNI above US$ 1 trillion are not eligible regardless of other factors.

If your institution is in a Group A (free access) country, area or territory, then Research4Life is free. If your institution is in a Group B (low-cost access) country, area or territory, Research4Life costs US$ 1500 per institution per calendar year (from January through December). All institutions registering from Group B countries are entitled to a six month trial.

If your institution is in Group B (low-cost access) country, and you cannot or choose not to pay the annual fee, your institution will still be eligible for free access to a number of information resources.
