

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 91182 / February 22, 2021

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of Bangi, Inc. (BNGI) (CIK No. 0001327238), a defaulted Nevada corporation based in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan at 9:30 a.m. EST on February 23, 2021 and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on March 8, 2021.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of BNGI because of questions regarding the accuracy and adequacy of information about BNGI and its securities in the marketplace concerning, among other things, BNGI's activities, and potentially fraudulent trading activity affecting the market for its securities, including: (a) since at least mid-January 2021, certain social media accounts may be engaged in a coordinated attempt to artificially influence BNGI's share price; and (b) BNGI's share price and trading volume have greatly increased since at least mid-January 2021 in the absence of any publicly available news from BNGI.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to BNGI securities until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Ana D. Petrovic, Assistant Regional Director, at (312) 886-8176. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
