SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Release No. 95156 / June 24, 2022

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of Digatrade Financial Corporation (“DIGAF”) (CIK No. 1369128), of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada at 9:30 a.m. EDT on June 27, 2022, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on July 11, 2022.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of DIGAF because of inaccurate and incomplete information in the market concerning: materially false and misleading information in Digatrade SEC filings concerning its President’s ownership and control over Digatrade stock, misleading promotional efforts by the President to induce others to purchase Digatrade stock at a time when the President was selling Digatrade stock and potential market manipulation beginning in May of 2014 and continuing through at least February 2018. The materially false and misleading information concerning Digatrade has not been corrected.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered unless and until they have strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer has any questions as to whether or not it has complied with the rule, it should not enter any quotation but instead should immediately contact the staff in the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance, at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by Rule 15c2-11, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to DIGAF securities until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information that may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Robert Baker, Assistant Director, at (617) 573-8918.
